PANCHO LUNA

Pancho Luna's childhood in Argentina was spent in his grandmother's library, where volumes of books in multiple languages and subject matter informed his imaginative nature.

Before he could even read, Luna began to understand these books as objects in themselves—as a maze of color, texture, and form. This was the foundational experience that informed the artist's sculpture, practice and style.

Luna carries on the historic, modernist tradition of acrylic sculpture. He is recognized for transforming the material into polished books – molding acrylic blocks into beautiful texts. Each piece incorporates a binding with images and words that reflect the artist's consciousness and concerns. As the viewer moves around the piece, the hues and patterns shift and change as they reflect against one another. The shadows that are cast throughout the piece and onto the surrounding walls are as delightful as the objects themselves.

Luna divides his time between Buenos Aires and Miami. His work is engaged with the contemporary art dialogue and is actively collected because of its aesthetic beauty, purity of form and poetic composition.
